CONSTITUTION OF THE COUNCIL

PART 1 – SUMMARY AND EXPLANATION

1 THE COUNCIL'S CONSTITUTION

- 1.1 East Staffordshire Borough Council has agreed a constitution which sets out how the Council operates, how decisions are made and the procedures which are followed to ensure that these are efficient, transparent and accountable to local people. Some of these processes are required by the law, while others are a matter for the Council to choose.
- 1.2 The Constitution includes 15 articles which set out the basic rules governing the Council's business and also includes more detailed rules, procedures and codes of practice.

2 WHAT'S IN THE CONSTITUTION?

- 2.1 Article 1 of the Constitution commits the Council to operate fairly, within the law, in consultation with the community and for the good of the community. Articles 2 – 15 explain the rights of citizens and how the key parts of the Council operate. These are:

 - 2.1.2 Citizens and the Council (Article 3).
 - 2.1.3 The Full Council (Article 4).

 - 2.1.8 Joint arrangements (Article 9).

- 2.1.14 Suspension, interpretation and publication of the Constitution (Article 15).

3 HOW THE COUNCIL OPERATES

- 3.1 The Council is composed of 379 councillors elected every 4 years. Councillors are democratically accountable to residents of their ward but the overriding duty of Councillors is to the whole community. However they have a special duty to their constituents, regardless of whether or not they voted for them.
- 3.2 Councillors are bound by a Code of Conduct to ensure high standards in the way they undertake their duties.
- 3.3 All Councillors meet together as the Council. Meetings of the Council are normally open to the public but on occasions may have to be held in private, depending on what is discussed and what is stipulated by law¹. It is at meetings of the Council where Councillors decide the Council's overall policies and set the budget each year.
- 3.4 In terms of governance, the Council operates the Strong Leader Model.
- 3.5 The Council will appoint a Leader of the Council every four years after ordinary elections to the Council. The Leader of the Council will, from time to time, appoint no less than 2 and no more than 9 other members as Cabinet Members who, along with the Leader, comprise the Cabinet. These Cabinet Members will be involved in making decisions collectively as the Cabinet and individually in accordance with the allocation of functions made by the Leader of the Council

4 HOW DECISIONS ARE MADE

- 4.1 Most decisions are executive decisions taken by Cabinet, Cabinet Members or officers. Cabinet Support Members (if appointed) do not have any executive decision making powers.
- 4.2 There are certain things that, by law, cannot be executive functions and these are dealt with by Council, specific Committees (the Planning Committee, the Licensing Committee, etc.) or officers.
- 4.3 The Borough Council publishes a Forward Plan showing those important decisions that are likely to be taken in a four month period. The publishing of a Forward Plan is a voluntary process but is considered by the Borough Council to be good practice.
- 4.4 Decisions are made at a meeting of the Cabinet, but on occasions may have to be held in private, depending on what is discussed and what is stipulated by law. Generally however, meetings will be open for the public to attend except where personal or confidential matters are involved².
- 4.5 Cabinet, Cabinet Members and Officers have to make decisions that are in line with the Council's budget and policy framework. If they wish to make a decision that is outside certain limits on the budget or outside the policy framework, then they must follow the procedures set out in this Constitution.
- 4.6 A Simple Guide to Decision-Making is set out in Part 4 of this Constitution.
