The Ten General Principles

The general principles governing your conduct are set out below:

Selflessness

1. Councillors should serve only the public interest and should never improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person.

Honesty and Integrity

2. Councillors should not place themselves in situations where their honesty and integrity may be questioned, should not behave improperly and should on all occasions avoid the appearance of such behaviour.

Objectivity

3. Councillors should make decisions on merit, including when making appointments, awarding contracts, or recommending individuals for rewards or benefits.

Accountability

4. Councillors should be accountable to the public for their actions and the manner in which they carry out their responsibilities, and should co-operate fully and honestly with any scrutiny appropriate to their particular office.

Openness

5. Councillors should be as open as possible about their actions and those of their authority, and should be prepared to give reasons for those actions.

Personal Judgement

6. Councillors may take account of the views of others, including their political groups, but should reach their own conclusions on the issues before them and act in accordance with those conclusions.

Respect for Others

7. Councillors should promote equality by not discriminating unlawfully against any person, and by treating people with respect, regardless of their race, age, religion, gender, sexual orientation or disability. They should respect the impartiality and integrity of the authority's statutory officers, and its other employees.

Duty to Uphold the Law

8. Councillors should uphold the law and, on all occasions, act in accordance with the trust that the public is entitled to place in them.

Stewardship

Code of Conduct for Parish Councils

Introduction

Pursuant to section 27 of the Localism Act 2011, Abbots Bromley Parish Council ('the Council') has adopted this Code of Conduct to promote and maintain high standards of behaviour by its members and co-opted members whenever they conduct the business of the Council, including the business of the office to which they were elected or appointed, or when they claim to act or give the impression of acting as a representative of the Council.

This Code of Conduct is based on the principles of selflessness, integrity, objectivity, accountability, openness, honesty, and leadership.

Definitions

For the purposes of this Code, a 'co-opted member' is a person who is not a member of the Council but who is either a member of any committee or sub-committee of the Council, or a member of, and represents the Council on any joint committee or joint sub-committee of the Council, and who is entitled to vote on any question that falls to be decided at any meeting of that committee or sub-committee.

For the purposes of this Code, a 'meeting' is a meeting of the Council, any of its committees, sub-committees, joint committees or joint sub-committees.

For the purposes of this Code, and unless otherwise expressed, a reference to a member of the Council includes a co-opted member of the Council.

Member obligations

When a member of the Council acts, claims to act or gives the impression of acting as a representative of the Council, he/she has the following obligations.

1. He/she shall behave in such a way that a reasonable person would regard as respectful.
2. He/she shall not act in a way which a reasonable person would regard as bullying or intimidatory.
3. He/she shall not seek to improperly confer an advantage or disadvantage on any person.
4. He/she shall use the resources of the Council in accordance with its requirements.
5. He/she shall not disclose information which is confidential or where disclosure is prohibited by law.

Registration of interests

6. Within 28 days of this Code being adopted by the Council, or the member's election or the co-opted member's appointment (where that is later), he/she shall register with the Monitoring Officer the interests which fall within the categories set out in Appendices A(1) and (2).
7. Upon the re-election of a member or the re-appointment of a co-opted member, he/she shall within 28 days re-register with the Monitoring Officer any interests in Appendices A(1) and (2).
8. A member shall register with the Monitoring Officer any change to interests or new interests in Appendices A(1) and (2) within 28 days of becoming aware of it.
9. A member need only declare the existence but not the details of any interest which the Monitoring Officer agrees is a 'sensitive interest'. A sensitive interest is one which, if disclosed on a public register, could lead the member or a person connected with the member to be subject to violence or intimidation.

Declaration of interests at meetings

10. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A(1) the member shall not participate in a discussion or vote on the matter. He/she only has to declare what his/her interest is if it is not already entered in the member's register of interests or if he/she has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it.
11. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A(1) which is a sensitive interest, the member shall not participate in a discussion or vote on the matter. If it is a sensitive interest which has not already been disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, the member shall disclose he/she has an interest but not the nature of it.
12. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to an interest in Appendix A(1), the member shall not vote on the matter. He/she may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting.
13. A member only has to declare his/her interest in Appendix A(2) if it is not already entered in his/her register of interests or he/she has not notified the Monitoring Officer of it or if he/she speaks on the matter. If he/she holds an interest in Appendix A(2) which is a sensitive interest not already disclosed to the Monitoring Officer, he/she shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.
14. Where a matter arises at a meeting which relates to a financial interest of a friend, relative or close associate (other than an interest in Appendix A(1)), the member shall disclose the nature of the interest and not vote on the matter. He/she may speak on the matter only if members of the public are also allowed to speak at the meeting. If it is a 'sensitive interest' the member shall declare the interest but not the nature of the interest.

Dispensations

15. On a written request made to the Council's proper officer, the Council may grant a member a dispensation to participate in a discussion and vote on a matter at a meeting even if he/she has an interest in Appendices A(1) and (2) if the Council believes that the number of members otherwise prohibited from taking part in the meeting would impede the transaction of the business; or it is in the interests of the inhabitants in the Council's area to allow the member to take part or it is otherwise appropriate to grant a dispensation.

APPENDIX B: Policies and Practices

This appendix records policies and practices, which, although they may not be required by law or formally defined in the Standing Orders, are considered by the Council to be useful statements that direct or support the effective running of meetings or other Council activities.

B1 Jubilee Cup

Each year the members of the Council will consider nominations for a recipient of the Jubilee Cup and make an award to a person from the parish who, in the opinion of the members, has made a significant contribution to the wellbeing of the parish. The Council will confirm the willingness of the proposed recipient to receive the award and the presentation will be made at the Annual Parish Assembly. Award of the cup will be recorded by the presentation of a framed certificate at the following Annual Parish Assembly.

B2 Working Groups

Although Committees and Sub-committees are permitted by Standing Orders, the normal practice of the Council will be to appoint informal Working Groups that will gather and analyse information but not take decisions. The findings and recommendations of Working Groups will be reported back to a meeting of the Council before any decision is made.

B3 Annual Parish Assembly

Minutes of the Annual Parish Assembly will be taken and produced in document form. They will only be distributed to members of the Council and any member of the public who specifically requests a copy. Minutes of the previous Assembly will not be read or reviewed at an Annual Parish Assembly but should be signed by the Chairman at the next meeting. Although not a legal requirement the draft minutes of the previous Parish Assembly will be available on the village website prior to the Assembly and as approved minutes after the Assembly.

B4 Anonymous Communications

No anonymous communication received by the Clerk or a member of the Council will be considered at a meeting. No action will be taken on any such communication unless the nature was such that ignoring it would be a breach of the law.

B5 Race Relations

The Council acknowledges the general duty placed on it by the Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000. The Council will continue within its' functions and policies to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, promote equality of opportunity and promote racial equality. (Resolution passed 30 April 2003 as minute 9)

B6 Grants

In general it is the policy of the Council to not provide revenue grants for qualifying organisations but to make one-off donations and capital grants to meet specific needs.

B7 Ten O'Clock Rule

When business is not completed by 10pm, any member present may ask that the Council consider adjourning part, or all, of the remaining business until the next meeting.

B8 Public Session

The public session of a Parish Council meeting will take place at the beginning of each meeting. Members of the public will be allowed to speak for a maximum of 5 minutes each and should clearly state their name when they start to speak. They are welcome to ask questions to the council. The public session should be a maximum of 15 minutes unless there are extenuating circumstances such as a major issue that parishioners have concerns about.

APPENDIX C: Protocol for Parish Councillor / Clerk Relations

The Council resolved to adopt this model protocol on 30 November 2005 (Minute 78).

- 1 A Parish Council is a Statutory Local Authority which usually employs a Clerk and may employ other Officers. Every appointment to paid employment must be on merit.
- 2 The Clerk is the Council's Proper Officer and Chief Executive. S/he should guard against inappropriate public statements, and, in particular, should not act in a party political capacity within the parish.
- 3 Officers must be politically neutral: they are employed by the Council, not by Committees or other individual Councillors. The political neutrality of Officers should be respected. They should not be asked to play any role or undertake any task that is likely to prejudice that neutrality.
- 4 All Members of the Council (Councillors) have a right of access to the Clerk (see also para. 10). Where a Member requires information, it will be provided if it is readily available, for example, in Council/Committee papers or material published on behalf of the Council. The Clerk is free to give advice on a confidential basis about procedural matters to any Member.
- 5 The Clerk must be free at all times to seek advice from the County Association of Local Councils and/or other appropriate bodies on matters concerning the proper exercise of his/her duties.
- 6 Councillors should recognise that, in order for Officers to carry out their duties properly, appropriate training and reference material are required.
- 7 Councillors and employees must understand that Council decisions can only be made by full Council, Committees or Clerks acting under delegated authority. The law does not allow for decisions relating to the discharge of any of the Council's functions to be taken by a Chairman or indeed by any other single Councillor. Councillors and employees must ensure that representations made to the Council on any matter during any stage of the formal decision making process should be directed to the Council or appropriate Committee via the Clerk.
- 8 Reports to Council and Committees should be written by the Clerk or another authorised Officer.
 - i) If the Chairman or another Member in exceptional circumstances is unhappy with its contents, it should not be amended by the Chairman or another Member, save with the express approval of the Clerk.
 - ii) In most cases, discussion between the Chairman and the Clerk will resolve any disagreement over a report; however if the Clerk's report is not regarded as appropriate by the Chairman, then exceptionally the Chairman should write his or her own report in addition to the report submitted by the Clerk. The Chairman should, under no circumstances, use undue pressure to persuade the Clerk to withdraw the original report.
- 9 Mutual respect between Officers and Councillors is essential to good local government. The Clerk may be closely related to a Councillor: they must be especially careful to ensure that their official dealings are open and transparent.
- 10 Where the Clerk works from home, Councillors must respect agreed practical arrangements for liaison with the Clerk.
- 11 In line with the Code of Conduct's reference to treating others with respect, it is important that any dealings between Councillors and Officers should observe reasonable standards of courtesy:
 - a) Neither party should seek to take unfair advantage of their position.
 - b) Employees, whether individually or collectively, should not be subject to attacks or criticism.

- c) Councillors should avoid naming individual employees, if at all possible, and neither Councillor nor employee should resort to the media to resolve a disagreement between them.
- 12 The Code of Conduct also requires the promotion of equality by not discriminating unlawfully against any person:
 - a) Council will regard as a serious offence actions by an employee or a Councillor which amount to work related bullying, harassment, discrimination against or victimisation of any employee or Councillor and particularly so where such action is on the grounds of race, gender or disability.
 - b) Bullying can take the form of shouting at an individual, making persistently negative attacks on an individual's personal or professional performance, criticising an individual in front of others, persistently setting objectives with impossible deadlines or unachievable tasks, excessive monitoring of an individual's performance or withholding information with the intent of deliberately affecting an individual's performance.
 - 13 Confidentiality is often vitally important, and must be respected by Councillors and Officers at all times. A breach of confidentiality may have serious implications for the individual Councillor/Officer who "leaks" the information.
 - 14 It is the duty of the Clerk to ensure that the work and responses of employees are conducive to and not undermining of, the foregoing general principles. They are entitled to expect Members to respect political restriction and the duties and limitations of employees.
 - 15 It is also the duty of the Clerk to arrange matters so that other employees properly understand the roles of Members and employees and the Council's required approaches to the relations between them. They are also entitled to expect Members to respect the degree of seniority of employees who are answerable to the Council via the Clerk and not an individual Councillor.
 - 16 Official correspondence on behalf of the Council should normally be sent out in the name of the appropriate Officer, rather than in the name of the Councillor. It may be appropriate in certain circumstances (eg. representations to a Government Minister, or on behalf of the Chairman in his/her Civic capacity) for a letter to appear in the name of the Councillor, but this should be the exception rather than the norm. Letters which for example, create obligations or give instructions on behalf of the Council, should never be sent out in the name of a Councillor.
 - 17 Complaints of alleged breaches of this protocol will be dealt with under the Council's Complaints Procedure. The Councillor concerned may be censured and/or reported to the Standards Board for breach of the Code of Conduct. The employee concerned may face disciplinary action.
